Chapter 1 by Aaron Hartmann

There was nothing.

Chapter 2 by Magnolia

I tried my best to peer through the darkness, but it was just that- darkness, nothingness. For a moment I couldn't even hear my own thoughts. Which was strange, because I still thought about it. The more I thought about that, the more my head throbbed. I decided to not think about it to avoid a painful migraine. Instead, I decided to do something. I tried to walk, but I couldn't tell if I was actually moving.

Chapter 3 by StoryMaster
